onjali prasada.

Over the past 29 years, Onjali has meticulously cultivated her artistic style, honing her skills in Icon Painting, Figurative & Abstract Expression.

At present, a distinguished collection of over 175 of Onjali's artworks grace the walls of private collectors and corporate establishments worldwide.

Her chosen medium is primarily canvas and she employs a diverse range of Italian, French, and Japanese professional inks, oils, acrylic paints, as well as various mediums and mixed media.

Drawing inspiration from her 15-year residence in Europe and seamlessly integrating her Indian roots. Onjali's artworks transcend the visible, projecting a parallel reality that encompasses emotions, free-form, expression, universal themes, and a vibrant palette-or the deliberate absence thereof-much like a dream. Each stroke on the canvas serves as a reflection of the artist's inspiration and inner world at that particular moment in time.

Embedded in Onjali's artistic philosophy is the belief that "Art is never complete in a state of isolation. It must be viewed, observed, appreciated, and critiqued to truly exist within the realms of reality."

artist background

A seasoned, innovative, experimental and dedicated artist, Onjali honed her artistic skills at esteemed institutions such as Rabindranath Tagore's 'Visva Bharati University', Shantiniketan and the 'National Institute of Design' Ahmedabad.

Complementing her formal education, she delved into the traditional technique of Icon (Fresco) Paintings, expanding her expertise through a notable experience at a Greek Orthodox Church in Central Europe.
